Medicine roadmap

Stage in a medical career	How can we can help	Your goal
Applying to university	Advice on which university to	Optimize grades to be considered
First year university	attend and which programs/	for admission.
	courses to choose.
Second/third year university	Advice on extracurricular	Build an interesting and unique activities and MCAT strategies.	profile that will make you an attractive applicant. Obtain a good MCAT score to be considered for admission.
Applying to medical school	See our comprehensive collection	Present your best self to the
	of consulting services.	admission committee and optimize your chances of success.
Medical school (pre-clerkship)	Free advice on extracurricular	Build a strong application that suits activities, research opportunities,	your specialty of choice early on.
	and choosing a specialty.
Medical school (clerkship)	Free advice on improving clinical	Become familiar with patient care performance and booking	and network with our consultants electives.	across Canada and the U.S. through rotations/electives to learn about pros and cons of different programs.
Applying for residency	Free general advice on application	Get into the specialty you love.
	and interview preparation.	This is likely what you will do for
	"Mock interviews"	the rest of your life.
Residency and beyond	As would be expected of	Collaborate with your professional colleagues	network to provide the best patient care, obtain employment, conduct research, teach, and innovate. In medicine, the possibilities are truly limitless!